

Teambuilding programs

We can offer you a great variety of teambuilding programs, starting from different types of rallies/treasure hunts inside and outside Budapest, driving programs, gastronomical- and active games.

Trabant Rallye

Come and explore the experience of driving a Trabant, also known by the nickname Trabi... The Trabant is a „low-cost” automobile, and back in its time it was the most popular vehicle in the countries of the communist block, therefore in Hungary too. During this activity the participants can drive this symbolic car of the communist era themselves, in groups of 2-4 pax (as the client wishes).

The rally starts from a parking outside the city and takes approx 1,5-2 hours. With the help of a map and a detailed itinerary they have to find certain stops where different tasks and challenges are waiting for them.

We offer you 2 different itineraries:

- 1) Rally from the Gödöllő castle to Lázár Equestrian Park
- 2) Rally from outside Budapest to Etyek

City Rallye on the Buda or the Pest side

We invite you to discover the Hungarian capital, from a different and new aspect!

The participants can discover Budapest by their own, divided in small teams. Additionally, they have to complete exercises, answer tricky questions, and find hidden places in the city...

We prepare the itinerary according to the group's program, in this case the rally ends at the Danube bank where they can board on a boat and enjoy a lunch on the waves of the Danube.

Possible extra station along the rally, in Pest (to choose from):

- ❖ Ride the Millenium Metro, the first metro line in the continent of Europe
- ❖ Meet the phantom of Opera
- ❖ Pálinka tasting at the Vajdahunyad Castle
- ❖ Enjoy a coffee and a cake in the most historical coffee house of the city
- ❖ Meet the Hungarian Kings in the Heroes' Square
- ❖ Buy a Hungarian product in the Grand Market Hall

City Rallye with I-Pads

Solve the secrets of the XVII. century with the help of the technology used in the XXI. century. Discover the mysterious faces of the city, get to know the stories and the secrets of the people once living here...

You have to solve a whole range of GPS coordinates, codes, cryptexes and tasks in order to go along your path – and if you succeed, your reward will be granted!

Each team receives an iPad and an envelope.

Your first task is to open your iPad... yes, it is locked with a PIN CODE.

If you succeeded, open your mails – the message contains the puzzle of the first station waiting for you. You have to solve this puzzle and the task received afterwards. The participants have to finish the program within a given time frame.

James Bond game

Goldeneye, Skyfall, YOU can also become part of a real espionage! Search, investigate and put together the details!

A group of terrorists is planning an assassination against the queen, and as a first step thereof, a bomb has been placed in the surroundings of the primary target of the assassination, which is the Budapest base of the secret service.

The team members must apply the best of their knowledge at each scene to obtain the right information, which sometimes means looking for a time capsule in a tablet, deciphering a Morse- coded ciphertext, opening a secret bin having no lock, looking for hidden message in an article, making a silent hostage speak, finding an undercover agent in a pub or on the street, and at the end, with the whole range of information available solving the deactivation code and make the bomb harmless by defusing it.

Get acquainted with your team, find the bulk of information provided to you, and let's get down to investigation.

Trabant Painting

During this program participants will fly back to a long-gone era, the so-called "happy socialist dream world" of the 1970s-80s. In this "old school mood" the participants will go under both mental and physical tests while having great fun.

After creating teams, the first task is to prepare their cars for the Trabant painting contest. Sufficient amount of paints and other accessories can be found next to each car. But of course... instead of white canvas there are white Trabants waiting for the occasional painters to embody their creative ideas while dressing them up in beautiful colors according to their imagination.

While painting there are different tasks to fulfill for which valuable and extra colors of sprays can be won. These extra colors makes the cars even more unique and this way they are more likely to gain the „Coolest Trabi“ title.

Cooking course in the Central Market Hall

Shopping, cooking course and lunch in the Market hall: The group is divided into smaller groups, and the cooking course starts with a prepared shopping list. The groups are asked to buy the raw materials from the market. (money is given to the groups). Preparation of the typical Hungarian dishes begins, such as Gulyás soup.

Each contestant uses the raw materials purchased by his or her own team. The main attraction of this cooking competition is the preparation of the dessert. Competitors have to make their pancakes. The winner is the contestant who successfully tosses the pancake at first try.

At the end of the cooking competition the guests eat the dishes the have made, which are served individually.

During the meal the orchestra plays popular melodies of internationally known Hungarian composers, operettas and other classics.

Sausage filling in the Central Market Hall

Every nation swears by its own proven recipe for sausage making. In the large, reputable sausage and salami manufacturers say that the secret recipe was only known by the them, and in the villages in the old days the recipe was passed from father to son.

At the table our chef first divides the participants into teams, then he tells the guests the mysteries of making and flavouring sausages, after that the teams will get a chance to try their hands and make sausage according to their taste.

We provide the ingredients - i.e. meat and spices - but the patrons are in charge of flavouring and filling.

Naturally, we will test the final product: the freshly made sausages will be fried in the kitchen, so everyone will get a chance to taste what level of mastery they have attained in sausage making. Our chef will assess the end results and announce the best sausage-filling team.

Puszta Olympic Games

For this program we travel to a venue cca 45 minutes from the centre of Budapest, to a beautiful horse park. We divide the team into 2 parts, they will compete against each other. Before starting the competition every game is demonstrated by the staff.

The others cheer and support while slaloming among the bales of straw. Later they take the bullhip and knock down (or at least give it their best shot) a bottle set on a log. After having completed this challenge they run on to the horseshoe throwing where at least one horseshow must be thrown into a bucket. They can only proceed if they successfully stand this test. Then they go back to their group and the next contestant may take their turn.

The games are followed by the announcement of results, the best teams can take home a memorable gift.

Medieval Teambuilding competition in Visegrád

A team-building style competition is organized in connection with the Knights' Tournament, where guests have to use different weapons of the age with the help of the knights.

During the competition, guests are divided into teams and get clothes of different colors. Teams have to fight for points at different stations located in the Lower Castle of Visegrád.

The stations of the team-building competition are the following:

- Archery
- Targeting with spear
- Target with broadsword
- Shooting with battle star
- Riding the wooden horse
- Wreath throwing on the edge of sword

During the competition, refreshment drinks are available between the stations. After calculating the total points of the teams, the results are announced and the awards are handed over to the winning team.

Dragon boat racing on the Danube at a bay in Budapest

Spend 2 active hours on the Danube river with a fun activity. The place of the race will be at the Lágymányos area, at a nicely renovated bay area.

The group will be divided into teams, they will get a short lesson and learn the basics of this sport, followed by practice on land and water. The most exciting part of the program is of course the dragon boat race itself, after which the winner team will be awarded.

Team building games in the Hospital in the Rock

You are invited to the sensational touristic attraction of Hungary, the former top secret Nuclear Bunker and Emergency Hospital beneath the Buda Castle that is now open to the public.

Much more than a mere museum or bunker, this exhibition illustrates in the original surroundings the ambiance of the tragic final days of World War II, and later, the chill and naïveté of the early days of the Cold War. The group can participate in one of the below team building activities:

“Spy game”: The training takes place in the Top Secret Spy Academy, where our Elite Spies train the beginners. The applicants first have to participate on the training itself to learn from the best about spying. You will learn how to break codes, confront your fear, cover-up your identity and many more! After receiving the knowledge from the elite, the applicants will set up groups and get a secret mission which needs to be fulfilled perfectly.

„Atomic Disaster” program: What would YOU do in case of an atomic attack? The game is preceded by a theoretical training about the usage of chemical protection equipment and about things to do in case of a nuclear attack. Then the players receive costumes and in teams with animators they can start putting the hospital in operation while meeting new challenges – alarms, decontamination, giving first aid and using gasmask and chemical protecting cloths...

Rally in the Open Air Museum, paprika tasting and cooking course in Szentendre

Enter into the spirit of the countryside as it was at the end of the 19th century! Handicraft master work in the houses and yards, sheep bleat in the detached farmstead, the water mill is crushing grain, and the delicious smell of strudel comes from the bakery...

The Hungarian Open Air Museum – the largest Skanzen in Hungary –, which is 20 km from Budapest presents the architectural characteristics, way of life and traditions of different Hungarian regions.

The visit is organized as a treasure hunt RALLY in the territory of the open-air museum. Teams can orient themselves with the help of a road book, previously given to each group during the briefing. All groups go through the same stations, but follow another itinerary. During the 3-hour-long rally, participants have the possibility to go through all the 8 legends of the museum. At every legend they have to complete one or more tasks of different level of difficulty.

Hop on the nostalgic train, taste Hungarian specialties, try different handcrafts activities! Get ready for the adventure!

After the rally the group can participate in a goulash soup cooking course with paprika tasting. After everybody received the necessary instruments: a cutting board, knife and raw materials, the master classes can start.

At the end of the course which is combined with lunch, the participants will receive certificate about "master chef of the goulash soup". The handmade paper is printed in English "diploma" on the back is a recipe for goulash.

During the cooking course participants will have an opportunity to taste the famous Hungarian paprika types.

Bringo rallye on the Margaret Island

Bringos belong to the Margaret Island just like ice cream to the summer, so it is a must to try them, for example in the form of a rallye.

The whole group is divided in smaller groups and takes the „bringos“ (cycling equipment for 2 or 4 people per bringo). At the departure every group gets a map of the Margit Island, the stations can be found on this map. The teams should find all these stations where some small exercises are waiting for them (completing a puzzle, darts, whip clashing, ball throwing, etc).

They are supposed to accomplish all these exercises and then get back to the departure point. According to the realization time and the team's answers we will evaluate the teams and announce the winners.

At the end of the challenge and on the stations, refreshing snack, drinks are waiting for the participants.
